

ZUCCATO®

- Zuccato has a large variety of black and green olives including whole and pitted
- Riviera olives are cultivated in the Mediterranean area and preserved in a brine to deliver an intense flavour.
- Green Giant olives are whole olives that are crunchy in texture combined with a slightly salty taste.
- Grilled olives (Olive Tostate) are harvested only when they are fully ripened then preserved in salt and left to dry in the sun. The dark colour and the characteristic bitter taste are the result of this particular treatment that makes these Tostate Olives delicious.
- Ligurian black pitted olives are grown in the region of Liguria in the north west of Italy and are small olives preserved to deliver a unique and subtle flavour.
- By far the most renowned Zuccato olives are the bountiful Bella di Cerignola olives grown in Cerignola, Italy.
- So plump in size allowing a hearty and full bodied flavour with incredible bite
- Available in various sizes 720ml, 1062ml and 1700ml jars.
- Olives are a naturally gluten free food.
- All these olives are excellent as starters as well as served as a side dish or mixed in with salads, rice, pasta and great fillers for sandwiches too.
